

Turn some odd socks into sock puppets!
Pretend they are your favourite characters from a story and have the puppet read the story to you!

Use chalks to write the alphabet on the concrete in your garden. Can you jump to each letter in the correct order?

Tell a story to someone in your house using just this picture. What are the characters names?
What would happen to them in the story?

Put these adjectives into silly sentences.

Strange

Foul

Handsome

Joyful

wicked

Read a story to someone in your house but change the characters! For example, Goldilocks and the three Hares, or The Three Little Llamas!

Read through your books at home. How many times can you find these common exception words?

The
There
Friend
Said

Which word is the most popular?

A compound word is where 2 unrelated words are joined to create a new word, such as playground, bedroom, sunflower.

Can you think of any more?

Can you create new ones?

Toybank- a place to keep my toys.
Moonflowers- a flower that only comes out at night.

You know this character, but does everyone in your house know who he is? Describe who he is, what he does and what happens in the stories he is in!

Daily activity – Choose 4 words a day from the Common Exception words and practice saying them, spelling them and using them in a sentence.

You should be able to read all of the Year 1 words at the end of July. Challenge yourself to learn the Year 2 words ready for September!

Common Exception Words

Year 1

a his push was are house put we ask I said were where be is says school you by love me she so come do my no some friend of the there they to full go once one our pull today

Year 2

after class floor most pretty again climb gold move prove any clothes grass Mr should bath cold great Mrs steak beautiful could half old sugar because door hold only sure behind even hour parents told both every improve pass water break everybody kind past who busy eye last path whole child fast many people wild children father mind plant would Christmas find money poor