

Tucana Theme and Orion Theme

Monday 13th July

Last week you dusted down your computer science skills and created your own candy monster.

Today, we would like you to continue developing your coding skills by working through the 'Quick Draw Emoji' hour of code session. The game can be found at this link:

Have you heard of

<https://www.theickabog.com/read-the-story/>

Let's continue the Ickabog adventure! Today, we would like you to complete the next instalment and read chapter 11 and then create illustrations based on the following:

- Chocolate fondu
- A cheesemonger's shop
- Honey roast ham
- A butcher's shop
- Grapes hangin on their vine
- A bottle of Jeroboam champagne
- The marsh

As always, we would love to see your what you have created – upload a photo of your illustrations to FROG.

For today's task we would like you to read chapter 11 and then begin to craft your drawings based on the bullet points shown above.

World Emoji Day

Let's celebrate emojis! We use emojis every day, so why not celebrate them? Welcome to World Emoji Day! Emojis have been used since the beginning of the internet, but their popularity increased so much that they became built into smartphone touchscreen keyboards and the messaging apps that we use every day. Their popularity also led to the creation of a wide range of emoji merchandise and even an emoji movie!

Emojis are a great way for people to communicate across language barriers and help us express sentiment and emotion. So why not get involved and celebrate World Emoji Day on Friday 17th July 2020? World Emoji Day is celebrated on this date, as this is the day that appears on the calendar emoji!

Who created emojis?

Emojis were invented by Japanese designer Shigetaka Kurita in 1999. They were made in order to make communication easier within limited text fields - the same reason we still use them today! Kurita was just 25 years old when he invented emojis.

What are the most popular emojis?

1. Face with tears of joy

2. Red heart

3. Smiling face with heart eyes

4. Thumbs up

5. Hand waving

Fun emoji facts

- 3,304 emojis have been created to date, with new emojis created and released every year.
- 95% of internet users have sent an emoji
- Over 10 billion emojis are sent every day!
- The word 'emoji' was added to the Oxford Dictionary in 2013
- The birthday cake and pizza slice are the most popular food emojis

Today's task is to create your own set of emojis – try to make them creative and completely different to any other emojis. They could be based on animals, humans, emotions, food – the list is endless.

Upload a picture of your emojis to our FROG site.

Once completed, attempt to solve the following emoji code breaker:

Love Parks Week

'Parks matter to us all.

That's why we work every day to protect and improve them. We celebrate the very best green spaces through our international Green Flag Award and People's Choice vote. We help to improve them even more through our innovations, #LitterHeroes and campaigns.

But because parks are so important, we take a week each year to really showcase them.

For this year's Love Parks Week we are encouraging everyone to get out and enjoy their favourite park. By using and celebrating your local park, you are helping us to protect them for future generations.'

For today's theme task, I would like you to... go to the park!

How many different types of trees can you find?

How many different plants can you find?

How many different animals can you see?

What age of people do you see in the park?

What games are people playing?

Tuesday 14th July

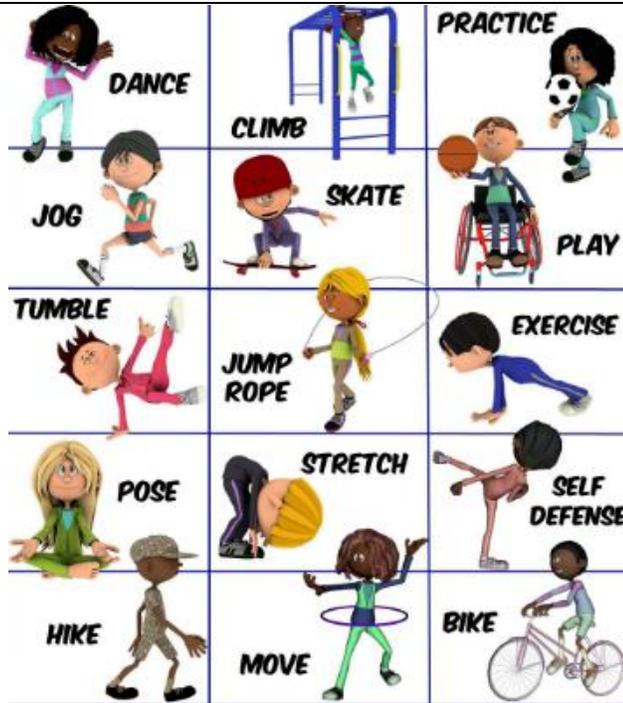

PE

Use this time to practise a skill which involves you moving! (Not computer games).

You could practise:

- Kick-ups
- Hoola-Hooping

- Throwing things at a target (e.g. bean bag)
- Juggling
- Running
- Cycling
- Skipping
- Dancing
- Yoga

Wednesday 15th July

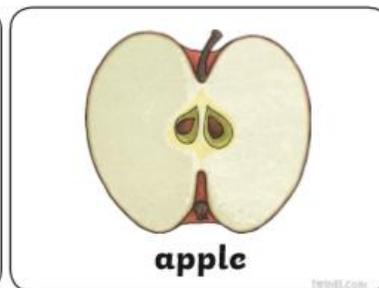

Science

Watch the BBC Bitesize video on seed dispersal.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zxfrwmn/articles/z28dpbk>

If the link doesn't work, Google 'BBC Bitesize – How do plants disperse their seeds'
Complete the activity at the bottom of the page.

Now research how the following seeds are dispersed:

Did any of the dispersal methods surprise you?

PSHE – Memories

First watch this video about memories <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TUoJcONPajQ>
Each year of your life you make memories; hopefully you've made lots of good memories in Year 5.

Answer the following questions, reflecting on your time at school this year:

- 1) How did you feel on the first day in Year 5?
- 2) Where did you sit in the classroom at the start of the year?
- 3) What fun activities do you remember doing this year?
- 4) Have you made any new friends this year?
- 5) What has been your favourite lesson this year?
- 6) What is one piece of work you are proud of?
- 7) What is the most interesting thing you have learnt this year?
- 8) What has been your favourite thing to play at playtime/dinnertime?

World Emoji Day

'In recent years July the 17th has been known as World Emoji Day, chosen because the calendar emoji is depicted with the date of the 17th as its image.'

Emoji's have actually been used since the beginning of the internet however their popularity has increased on a massive scale with the modern day smartphone having them built into our messaging dashboards, well known emoji merchandise on sale around the world and even an emoji movie in honour of them.

An emoji is a great way of expressing the meaning behind our messages when they can quite often otherwise be lost.'

Can you break these emoji codes?
